

Comments from Pfizer Japan employees who are widely considered to be the future leaders of the company

“Advisor”

Rob-san is a talent developing adviser who can advise to young candidates. He is fresh blood for Pfizer through experience, culture, knowledge and life style

Okamoto, Shigeru TSD
Therapeutic Sales Director

“Life Counselor”

He is a life coach who helped me recommit to Pfizer and to my subordinates. I can always speak to him from my gut and it is helpful to increasing my productivity.

Kawasaki, Shuji, TSD
Therapeutic Sales Director

"Coach"

You had business experiences and knowledge and could perform the roll of a good coach rather than an English teacher. I expected that I could improve my English conversation skills productively under the relaxed situation, and these sessions have been just it and I have enjoyed the relax time with you. It mainly owed to your friendly personality.

Maezawa, Noboru Finance Director

“Global Business Consult”

Good global business teacher who has International & Pfizer business knowledge and actual experience. He brings a new style of training that is combined with his good business understanding of Pfizer Japan and Western/Japanese cultures.

Toyosawa, Yatsuto Director PHA
(Pfizer Healthcare Academy)

“Key person in our future“

Rob is effective for us. He has business knowledge and skills that combine with his ability to help us in our English business needs. Rob is not like other teaching/coaching entities because he has a lot of business experience in Pfizer making him an effective business trainer for CM-2 and CM3.

Kizaki, Hiroshi Associate Director
Presidents Office

“Partner and Bridge”

Rob-san is not like other training entities. He understands our Pfizer business deeply, and makes it possible to implement training without restrictions by being able to focus on Pfizer’s needs. He is a valuable bridge to NY headquarters in understanding us.

Tomita, Hideyuki RM
Regional Manager (Sales)

“Warm Hearted Ally”

The first thing about Rob-san is that he is warm-hearted. He doesn’t only teach English communication but also has served the sales leadership as an experienced business consultant who is aligned with us and our situations as a partner. He also brings advanced tools. With his warmheartedness as the background the fear and anxiety Japanese usually have to speak or to share openly is resolved. Their trust allows him to help raise sales colleagues motivation and productivity.

Hirai, Noboru Associate Director J-Spirit
Japan-Spirit Sales Productivity and Motivation Project

“Treasure - Great Contributor”

I think that an employee like you are necessary even in every branch office if possible. You are always on my side. If you had not been in this program, I couldn't have accomplished my presentation. In addition, I was personally helped by you when I got depressed about my job. In terms of human resource for our future, Rob-san will be our treasure like a great contributor.

Do you think this company is able to be a most respected pharmaceutical company in near future? If you do, Rob’s way is quite important to this kind of effort. Absolutely Rob is different then other teaching entities.

Takiguchi, Manabu MR
Medical Representative
